Subject: RE: EJSCREEN TRAINING at HBCU - Need Clarification

Good Morning

So good to hear from you. Just to clarify, the agenda does list the EMI workshop/student presentations on March 17 from 4:45-6:15 PM. Originally that slot was filled by the EJSCREEN training.

Are you saying there will still be an EMI the student workshop/presentations and a EJSCREEN training (held in a computer lab)?

If it easier we could combine both into one event. If needed to you could extend the March 17 time slot to two hours and we could hold both the EMI Student workshop followed by the EJSCREEN training.

Perhaps we could have a phone call and see how I could help.

Just a reminder we have an alternate in place of Meghan Franklin: our "NEW" student is Kassandra Rice, Humboldt State University " Challenges and Opportunities of Climate Change in Times of Different Perspectives." If you combined the workshop and training I can help write the introduction.

Thanks Mary I know this is a busy time for you and your team. Let me know how I can assist.

So sorry Joanna, the EJ Screen Workshop was inadvertently deleted from the agenda. We are still working on the student panels and have not assigned the EMI Panel. As soon as this information is available, I will e-mail it to you.

Best,

Mary

Hi again

It just came to our attention that the EJSCREEN training is no longer on the agenda. Was this an error or did you have to drop it to make room for the EMI workshop? The date and time listed for the EMI workshop is the original slot for the EJSCREEN Training. Please see the email chain below. The last time we discussed this you were looking for a computer lab to hold the training.

Please let me know.

Thanks Mary!!!

Good Morning Mary

The topic is the EJSCREEN training scheduled for Friday, March 17. There are so many moving parts for EMI planning this year – we now have three workshops. We briefly mentioned the room set-up during a previous phone call, but I have not discussed or confirmed the number of computers for this workshop. The EJSCREEN is an interactive training and the participants will need computers – if the number of computers is an issue we could put two people per computer. It is possible to hold the training in a computer lab?

Here is the information on the EJSCREEN presenter and the training description:

1. Presenter:

Alyssa Edwards, Program Analyst, US Environmental Protection Agency / Office of Environmental Justice

Learn how to navigate EPA's EJSCREEN. This mapping and screening tool will assist researchers, community residents or other stakeholders as they search for environmental or demographic information that can support a wide range of research and policy goals related to environmental justice.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Hi Joanna,

Thanks for checking and for the quick turnaround. Not to worry. I'll include the registration fee in my travel request. If Dr. Padgett needs a description of the EJSCREEN Workshop for the agenda he can feel free to use or adapt the following:

Workshop: EPA's EJSCREEN – an environmental justice mapping and screening tool that provides EPA with a nationally consistent dataset and approach for combining environmental and demographic indicators.

Related to the workshop, do you know if it would be possible to hold the workshop in a computer lab at the conference location, or if we can include a suggestion in the agenda for participants to bring their laptops for an interactive demonstration?

Best,

Alyssa

Hello

In an email exchange with Dr. Padgett he shared that their registration fee is already very low to encourage participation and that they depend on the fees to help meet their costs. I was not able to get my fee waived to encourage the FS to approve my attendance.

That's a long story to say everyone needs to pay the $100.00 registration fee, students pay $50.00. I hope that doesn't prevent your participation.

Thanks

Hi Joanna—we will send the letters to the 3 NEJC students and 2 HBCU students this week. We will also work with them on their travel arrangements. Really appreciate all your work!!!. The only thing that is not confirmed is the EJ Screen workshop for the HBCU workshop. If we don't have a presenter in the next couple of days we will need to cancel.

The question is: Will be able to conduct the two workshops? If so, don't we need to start making the travel arrangements soon. We need to set a deadline for how long we will wait for the formal letter before we start making the students hotel and travel arrangements.

I personally feel the host hotel is too expensive and we might need to explore other nearby hotels. I sent out the hotel information last week.
